THE INTERNET INDIGO GIRLS DISCOGRAPHY

I was in the process of preparing another collectors checklist of all the available Indigo Girls material when I ran across the official Indigo Girls list discography on the internet. It is far superior to anything I have ever created, so I am splitting it into two parts and running it in it's entirety in this and the August issues. As long as this list is, I am aware of several items that are not on it. It had been my intention to include them all, but due to time constraints and my continued displacement in Minneapolis I was not able to include them all, still I believe that this is the most comprehensive list that has ever been put together.

For those of you who are unfamiliar with the Indigo Girls list, it is an email mailing list, where it is possible to post and receive information about shows and new album releases. From these postings and the collective knowledge of the people on the list, the discography was born. I have enclosed the credits page, those involved have done an outstanding job of putting together the information and keeping it accurate and current. Anyway, just in case you were thinking that you had it all, I imagine you will find an item or two on the list that you were not aware existed. If you know of anything that is not on the list, either drop me a line or email the caretaker of the discography. Happy collecting!

Take care and be well -

Author and Acknowledgements

This discography has been compiled by Steve Clark (sclark@nlm.nih.gov) from personal experience and from messages on the Internet Indigo Girls electronic mailing list (see above). Please send corrections or additions to the author.

An early discography posted to the mailing list formed the original basis; I'm afraid I don't remember who wrote it. If somebody knows, I'd be glad to hear. I certainly couldn't have written this without the help of list subscribers too numerous to mention here, but several people stand out for particularly significant contributions:

John Currie (currie@dg-rtp.dg.com)

Kim Estler (estler@bisco.kodak.com)

Doug Henkle (henkle@vaxa.cis.uwosh.edu)

Amy Putnam (aputnam@lucy.wellesley.edu)

Max Slover (m.slover@genie.geis.com)

Steve Spencer (spencer@cgrg.ohio-state.edu)

Christine Wein (CLW@moose.cccs.umn.edu)
